- Purpose: What do you want your chickens for? Eggs, meat, or both? If you're primarily interested in eggs, you'll want to choose a breed that is known for good egg production.

- Climate: Where do you live? Some breeds are better suited to cold climates, while others are better suited to warm climates. If you live in a cold climate, you'll want to choose a breed that is cold-hardy.
- Temperament: How do you want your chickens to behave? Some breeds are known for being friendly and docile, while others are known for being more aggressive. If you have children, you'll want to choose a breed that is known for being gentle.
- Size: How much space do you have? Some breeds are larger than others. If you have a small backyard, you'll want to choose a breed that is smaller in size.
