Piece of My Heart Fostering Love is a non-profit organization dedicated to empowering foster children through the power of storytelling. Founded in 2015, Piece of My Heart has helped hundreds of foster children develop their voices, build confidence, and heal from the trauma of their experiences.

Through its unique programs, Piece of My Heart provides foster children with a safe and supportive space to share their stories. The organization's trained staff of mentors and volunteers work with foster children to develop their writing, storytelling, and public speaking skills. Foster children are also given the opportunity to participate in workshops, field trips, and other activities that help them build their confidence and resilience.

Piece of My Heart's programs have a profound impact on the lives of foster children. Through storytelling, foster children are able to process their experiences, develop a sense of self-worth, and connect with others who have shared similar experiences. The organization's programs also help foster children to develop the skills they need to succeed in school, work, and life.

Piece of My Heart Fostering Love is a vital resource for foster children in the United States. The organization's programs provide foster children with the support and resources they need to overcome the challenges of their experiences and reach their full potential.

Piece of My Heart's Programs

Piece of My Heart Fostering Love offers a variety of programs to meet the needs of foster children. These programs include:

- Storytelling workshops: These workshops provide foster children with a safe and supportive space to share their stories. Foster children are given the opportunity to write, record, and perform their stories. The workshops are led by trained staff and volunteers who provide feedback and support.
- Field trips: Field trips provide foster children with the opportunity to explore new places and learn new things. Field trips are often designed to help foster children build confidence and resilience. Past field trips have included visits to museums, art galleries, and historical sites.
- Mentoring: Piece of My Heart pairs foster children with mentors who provide support and guidance. Mentors help foster children to develop their social skills, academic skills, and life skills. Mentors also provide foster children with a safe and supportive adult relationship.
- Public speaking workshops: These workshops help foster children to develop their public speaking skills. Foster children learn how to write speeches, deliver speeches, and answer questions from the audience. The workshops are led by trained staff and volunteers who provide feedback and support.

Piece of My Heart's Impact

Piece of My Heart Fostering Love has a profound impact on the lives of foster children. The organization's programs provide foster children with the support and resources they need to overcome the challenges of their experiences and reach their full potential.

A study conducted by the University of California, Berkeley found that foster children who participated in Piece of My Heart's programs showed significant improvements in their self-esteem, confidence, and social skills. The study also found that foster children who participated in Piece of My Heart's programs were more likely to graduate from high school and attend college.
