For many seniors, the academic workload will be more challenging than ever before. They will be taking a full load of college-preparatory courses, and they will be expected to maintain a high GPA. However, there are also many opportunities for seniors to get involved in extracurricular activities. They can participate in sports, clubs, and student government. They can also volunteer in the community or get a part-time job.

The social life of seniors is also very active. They will attend homecoming and prom, and they will participate in other school-wide events. They will also spend time with friends and family, and they will make new memories that will last a lifetime.

Finally, seniors will begin to think about their future plans. They will need to decide what college they want to attend, and they will need to start applying for scholarships. They will also need to start thinking about what career they want to pursue.

The senior year at Blue Valley High School is a time of great change and growth. It is a time to learn and grow, both academically and personally. It is also a time to make memories that will last a lifetime.

Academics

The academic workload for seniors at Blue Valley High School is challenging but rewarding. Seniors will take a full load of college-preparatory courses, including English, math, science, social studies, and foreign language. They will also have the opportunity to take elective courses in a variety of subjects, such as art, music, business, and technology.

Seniors are expected to maintain a high GPA in order to be competitive for college admission. They should also take challenging courses that will prepare them for the rigors of college coursework.

Extracurricular Activities

Blue Valley High School offers a wide variety of extracurricular activities for seniors. Students can participate in sports, clubs, and student government.

They can also volunteer in the community or get a part-time job.

Extracurricular activities are a great way for seniors to get involved in their school and community. They can also help students develop leadership skills, teamwork skills, and time management skills.

Social Life

The social life of seniors at Blue Valley High School is very active. Seniors will attend homecoming and prom, and they will participate in other school-wide events. They will also spend time with friends and family, and they will make new memories that will last a lifetime.

Seniors should make an effort to get involved in their school and community. This will help them to meet new people, make friends, and create lasting memories.

College Planning

Seniors will need to start thinking about their future plans. They will need to decide what college they want to attend, and they will need to start applying for scholarships. They will also need to start thinking about what career they want to pursue.

The college planning process can be stressful, but it is also an exciting time. Seniors should take the time to research different colleges and careers, and they should talk to their counselors and teachers for advice.

The senior year at Blue Valley High School is a time of great change and growth. It is a time to learn and grow, both academically and personally. It is also a time to make memories that will last a lifetime.

Seniors should make the most of their senior year by getting involved in their school and community, by maintaining a high GPA, and by starting to think about their future plans.
